Archaïos has an essential but complete range of parts and pieces in the stone's single, natural color range making it the perfect backdrop for any setting.

The eight different size options were created to provide designers with endless options: from the large 60x120 cm tile to the inspiring compositions of the Runner Package, up to the innovative extra large runner package with 120 cm planks.

Two slip resistant surfaces, R10-B for interiors and R11 for outdoors - and two thicknesses, 10 mm and 2 cm, make Archaïos perfect for in&out continuous, technical design installations.
